

Another Step Forward!

Yesterday's Sunday Super-Newspaper The Washington Times

Eclipsed All Previous Efforts at Sunday Newspaper Production
If You Missed Yesterday's Sunday Morning Times You Missed All This:

WILSON SELLS GIFT FROM FRANCE

TOGETHER WITH PERSONAL PROPERTY OF FIRST WIFE

BRISBANE AND McCAY

—Illustrated editorials that make you actually see as well as feel the full import of the message imparted. Powerful Sunday sermons.

SOCIETY GIRLS MORE DARING THAN CHORUS GIRLS

—Um-huh! Lots of 'em!! Often!!! Florenz Ziegfeld says so and he ought to know. Tells all about "Self-Respecting Choruses" of modern-day shows. Illustrated! Beautiful!

VANDERLIP'S STORY OF RUSSIA

—The man who has just been there tells more about what is going on there right now. He made a two-billion dollar contract with the Soviet government, and you'll agree that's getting pretty "close."

MRS. BORDEN HARRIMAN, of Washington

—Contributed the first of a series of articles you will want to read—on the after-the-war problems of European women.

ARNOLD BENNETT, DR. WOODS HUTCHINSON, LORD

BEAVERBROOK, PHILIPPS MILLET (foreign editor of the Petit Parisien), GEORGE ADE (Fables in Slang) M. K. ZIA BEY (Turkish writer), DAMON RUNYON, GENE FOWLER, ED STREETER, "SKILLET FINN," TAD'S CARTOONS, a half-page of Polly and Her Pals and another of Krazy Kat, Follies of the Passing Show and Bill Price's Heard and Seen column go to make up Washington's biggest and best Sunday morning newspaper.

SECRET MONEY FORCES BACK OF WILSON CAMPAIGN

THAT WAS YESTERDAY'S CHAPTER OF THE MOST INTENSELY INTERESTING AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF THE AGE. IF YOU HAVE MISSED THE PRECEDING INSTALLMENTS OF McCOMBS' REVELATIONS YOU ARE NOT AS FULLY INFORMED AS YOU MIGHT BE ABOUT SOMETHING THAT YOU SHOULD BE.

BASEBALL! GOLF! TENNIS!

RACING! FISHING! FOOTBALL!

—The "Pink" Sports Section is the only sports section that touches upon all of 'em—thoroughly.

"THE CITY'S SHOP WINDOWS"

—Another new feature—entirely local—profusely illustrated—and right alongside some equally as interesting fashion information from abroad.

AN EXTRA PAGE OF PICTURES

—On the back page of the Sepia Section—which is full of pictures.

THE "PINK" SPORTS SECTION

—As superior to all other sports sections as the daily Final Sports Pink that has the results of all sports activities, next day's race entries, etc.

WASHINGTON BEAUTY vs. "LONELY CONGRESSMAN"

—Anna E. Niebel tells about Congressman Manuel Herrick's "beauty contest," with himself as prize.

ALAN DALE—at the new plays

—The authority of authorities "in things dramatic" on this side of the Atlantic—joins The Times Staff in the making of Washington's best Dramatic Section.

THE DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE

—A combination of the other six days' sterling features—with Nell Brinkley cartoon 'n' everything.

LADY DECIES

—Adds a touch of London life to Jean Eliot's Society Section—promising to be a weekly feature.

SINGER vs. PASTOR

—"When a singer becomes more powerful than the pastor in bringing people to church, it is time for the singer to leave," the Rev. Clovis Chappell, Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, is reported as saying. What do you think?

THE FOUR-COLORED COMIC SECTION

With Bringing Up Father, Katzenjammers, Boob McNutt and Down on the Farm
And the Four-Colored AMERICAN WEEKLY MAGAZINE

FOURTEEN FULL-SIZE NEWSPAPER PAGES, PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED—THE BEST WEEKLY MAGAZINE PUBLISHED AT ANY PRICE
